Foreword

How fast our four years at Marple-Newtown have slipped by, leaving so many pleasant memories of friendships, classes, athletics, and activities.

We have endeavored to show you, our parents and friends, how the various phases of our school life have helped us, typical of the youth of America, prepare for the post-war world.

Dedication

To you, the Youth of America, we dedicate this book as a special recognition of your ability to do the great job that lies ahead of you.

This job, planning the future of your nation and its success in the world, is the most important thing in your life and in the lives of your children after you.

We challenge you to accept our trust and arm yourselves with the weapons which your home, your church, and your school have given you—a foundation, a faith, and an education.

Principal and His Message

To the Class of 1945:

We Americans like to seize an idea and dwell upon it. At the present time anything having to do with the world after the finish of the present global conflict will grasp everyone's attention. Into this category falls the preparation of youth for the post-war world, and in some peculiar way the idea has gotten abroad that this preparation shall be different from the preparation necessary for the world that we have inhabited heretofore. Let us not be led into error.

The problems with which we shall be confronted will require strength of character for their solution. Already questions which we must handle are rearing their ugly heads. Intolerance is one of them and within the past few months we have seen the legislatures of New York and Missouri striking vigorously at intolerance in the guise of racial and religious discrimination.

The world we face will be taut and under a strain for some years to come, and you who belong to the generation that must solve its problems will have to use the best possible thought. Let this thought be tempered with a spirit of fairness and consideration for the other fellow's viewpoint. Only in this way can these post-war questions be handled so that they will not have to be considered again before your generation has given way to its successor.

Your friend,

Jay W. Worrall.

CLASS WILL

Shirley Amadio leaves her sunny disposition to Corinne Suess to add what she has.

Sam Baker's silence goes to Charles Satterthwaite and Evelyn Hollis.

To Helen Hogg, who has shown talent along that line, goes Florence Ballaron's artistic ability.

Helene Bostwick leaves her commercial ability to Jane Graf.

To Deborah Kirk goes Betty Broadbelt's quiet efficiency.

Betty Carney leaves her vim, vigor, and vitality to June Fleming, who has plenty of it already.

Betty Carney and Thelma Plank leave their hockey sticks to Margaret and Louise Bloomer.

Virginia Flood has donated her knack with Mr. Harvey to Mary Peirce and her nimble fingers to use on the typewriter next year to Lorraine Winterbottom.

Kay Friedrich's "speed" is left to Marjorie Broadbelt and Jack Graham with hopes that they are more successful at slowing down than she has been. Kay's scatter-brains go to Irene Melhuish.

Evelyn Hankele leaves her shorthand troubles and her sympathy to Ruth Thomas.

The dependability of Miriam Hipple goes to Georgia Earle and her captaincy to Helen Garrett.

Jane Hunter leaves her deep bass voice to Mickey Fiorello, who has often sung duets with her, and Gregory Peck to all the rest of his many admirers.

Dick Kerber leaves his shy smile to Bob Smith, and his pet horse to Karl Heinzelmann so that he can ride it around the halls to deliver all the office slips.

Ernie Muehlmatt leaves his car to Tom Sweeney and his innocent air to Bill Loomis. It certainly does fool you, doesn't it?

Bill Hipple is left George Peel's fun in P. O. D., and Irving Miller, George's ties.

Thelma Plank leaves her petitness to Anona Reichhardt, and her pretty teeth to Wilson Moyer to aid in flashing smiles at a certain Sophomore girl.

To Viola DeVito go Dee Reed's sharp clothes. Dee's cheer leading ability goes to Bill Wunsch with her compliments.

Charles Roberts leaves his captaincy to Civie (along with his wordy speeches), and his blond hair to Russell Manton.

Jackie Spiker leaves her red hair and knack with the fellows to Irene McElreavey and the deed to the boys' club to Ellen Babkirk.

To Elaine Schneck, Jean Stone leaves her musical ability.

Ruth Wendig leaves her pretty black eyes to Florence Drummond and her victrola needle to Phyl Mason. Don't worry Phyl, it won't wear out.

To Joe Bachtler goes Harry Wood's violin. Harry's super salesmanship goes to Ducky Neal.

The Senior commercials leave the editing of the "News from Home" to the Junior commercials with their compliments.

And last but not least, we leave you lots of luck and our best wishes.

Active Juniors

We started a very successful year by electing our class officers and our representatives to the Student Council. One of these served very capably as vice-president of the Council. The class, as has been the tradition for many years, ordered our rings early in the fall. We received them, very happily, just before Christmas.

We have been very active in sports, the annual play, the orchestra, and many other activities. Our biggest money-making deal was the magazine drive, in which we more than doubled the previous record for sales by selling over $1500 worth of subscriptions. Our profit was over $600. We are all looking forward to the Junior Prom which promises to be quite an affair.

We are also looking forward to next year with much enthusiasm, but we regret that we will lose many by enlistment in the armed services.

Sophomore Sum-Up

This being our first year in senior high, we saw our class participate in many activities, helpful to both the war effort and us.

In the field of sports, we were well represented. We had participants in all sports, ranking second to only the juniors.

We combined several guidance periods solely for the election of the present officers and other class business. Among this business was the changing of the class colors and flowers.

In the school play, which is given annually, we also had several representatives who presented new talent.

This first year in senior high has been a success with lots of fun. We now have only two more years of high school left, and we hope to find them as much fun as the sophomore year.

Busy Freshmen

The Class of 1948, under the capable guidance of our sponsors, Miss D'Amelio and Mr. Brown, decided, although we were but little "Freshies," to do our part to make a bigger and better Marple-Newtown. Following is a list of accomplishments of which we are very proud.

We won top honors and the fifty dollar prize in the first paper drive of the year, collecting over eight tons.

After much hard work our class was the only class in the high school to win the Blue Star Brigade special citation for selling bonds. Our class has also led in the sale of bonds and stamps during a greater part of the year.

The boy and girl athletes of the class have contributed their full share to the Junior High and Junior Varsity teams.

We are looking forward to the time when we will be Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, hoping that we may improve upon our present attainments.

Peppy Eighth Graders

Last year we were Future Eighth Graders. Now being Eighth Graders, we are looking toward the day when we shall find out if we are Ninth Graders in the fall.

This year in the scrap drive we came in second for a prize of $25 to boost up our treasury.

While we have not achieved first place in the Bond and Stamp Drive, we have tried very hard.

Although we were not eligible to try out for school teams, we have had lots of fun in the intramural sports.

For our Christmas present Miss Wenzell became Mrs. Snyder, having decided she liked him better than us. Mrs. Beach has very ably filled her position.

Our eighth year of school has been completed, and we are ready to try our ninth year hoping it will be as successful as this one has been.

Seventh Grade Highlights

This year has been an enjoyable one for the seventh graders. We have had a lot of fun at our parties. Several of our students have taken part in assembly programs, orchestra, glee club, and other activities.

In guidance period the girls knitted afghans, and the boys helped to make scrapbooks and lap robes. These were sent to the boys in the service.

We are very proud that we won $25 for the first paper drive and have contributed a great deal to the tin can salvage.

Student Association

The Student Association held its first meeting with the School Board representatives in February when the business of the year was discussed.

Under the Student Association's supervision, with Mr. Raffensperger as director, two scrap drives were sponsored. Ninth grade received the first prize of $50, while Eighth and Seventh grades each were rewarded with $25 as second prize winners.

Each year our fund collectors seem to do a bigger and better job. This year the twenty-seven collectors collected the highest sum yet collected—$484.95. As a reward for their good work, the Student Association presented the collectors with tickets to the Chicken Supper.

Plans are being made to buy equipment for the recreation room. It was felt that there is not enough to do during the few minutes after lunch is over and before classes begin again. The pupils suggested games, several of these are to be purchased for next year.

Officers and members this year are: President, Charles Roberts; Vice President, Domenic Civitella; Secretary, Miriam Hipple; Treasurer, Robert Goodyear; Richard Kerber, Mary Peirce, Gloria Harvey, Nina Butler, and James Clark.

Mar-News

The Mar-News in its sixth year of publication is still growing. There have been not only increases in the advertising and the circulation of the paper but also an advanced increase in interest on the part of the students toward their paper.

This year there was some real competition among our students to be chosen for the staff. Anyone who was not chosen by his teacher but who wanted to get on the staff wrote some articles or poem to show his journalistic ability. Some enthusiastic pupils gained entrance to the staff in this way.

New ideas were put to work on editing and arranging the paper in the hope of making it more interesting to the students. A new arrangement of the class news page was the most outstanding of these.

We earnestly believe that in the past few years the paper has taken great strides toward the kind of paper which is worthy of our school. We hope the paper will be even more of a success in the years to come!

String Ensemble

The String Ensemble has maintained its skill and fine musicianship which it established last year. Reports are still being received concerning its successful engagements of the preceding year.

At our candlelight Christmas Concert the String Ensemble accompanied the combined choruses of both the high school and grade school. It helped in creating the fine Christmas atmosphere which was evident at our school this past Christmas season. All of us consider it an honor to be a part of the String Ensemble of Marple-Newtown.

Glee Club

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The membership of the club has increased and now consists of about 112 members. Everyone eagerly began rehearsals in preparation for the candlelight service which took place December 21. The candlelight procession was very impressive, as the girls appeared in white evening growns carrying white tapers.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The membership now consists of 22 members. Rehearsals have been held every other Wednesday during club periods. The soloists from the club are Robert Nolan, boy soprano, and Arthur Smith, now in the service. The club is now preparing a cowboy entertainment for an assembly program to be given in April. The officers are: President, Robert Managan; Secretary, Robert Harris; Librarian, George Seely.

The High School Chorus, consisting of both the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, is of recent origin in the history of Marple-Newtown. The members have made great strides in establishing themselves as a part of the foremost activities of the high school. Its initial performance this year was the Christmas Concert. The chorus consists of 154 members. Plans are being made for this chorus to appear at the Third Tri-County Annual Concert at Radnor sometime in May. The chorus will also sing at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Cheerleaders

This year we started off with six new members of our cheer leading group: Dolores Reed, Ruth Wendig, Bill Wunsch, Betty Fox, Betty Helms, and Bessie Loomis. With the able leadership of Viola DeVito, an inspiring group of cheer leaders took the field. Much credit should be given to our cheerleaders who helped our athletes to have a good season.

The team will lose C. Roberts, R. Managan, B. Rudolph, and R. Woodcock through graduation. Domenic Civitella will step into Charles Roberts' shoes next year as captain of the team.

Down the Field

This year the hockey season opened with a grand turn-out of enthusiastic girls. Through the cooperation of these girls and our coach, Mrs. Conwell, we brought home two victories.

Although many girls disliked the changing of the hockey and football fields, we managed to forget the bumps and to play a good game.

Those lost by graduation are: Miriam Hipple, Captain; Betty Carney, Thelma Plank, Ruth Wendig, Jean Stone, Dolores Reed, and Kay Friedrich, Manager.

On the Court

The Senior High Basketball Team did exceptionally well this year under the capable coaching of Mr. Strunk and Mr. Raffensperger. The team had seven victories which was much better than last year's record. High scorers for the Varsity were Irving Miller with 187 points and Bob Woodcock with 113 points.

The Jayvees, all of whom played very good ball, had twelve victories. We'll be watching for these Jayvees next year. The fellows who sank the most baskets for the Jayvees were Bob Nash who scored 111 points and Bill Loomis with 106 points.

Through the Cords

The Girls' Basketball team, under the leadership of our coach, Mrs. Conwell, made a good showing this year in spite of the fact that we lost three of the best varsity players with last year's senior class. We won three games, with Nether Providence, Sharon Hill, and Swarthmore. Mary Peirce (Captain) was high scorer with 91 points.

Next year's team will be without three of the varsity guards, Miriam Hipple, Jane Hunter, and Virginia Flood. Helen Garrett was elected captain for next year, so to her and the rest of the team here's wishing lots of luck!

POURING IT ON!

In games of sport, as well as in war, when the other side shows signs of weakening, that's the time to pour it on, to shoot the works, to let 'em have both barrels.

Here at Ardmore, the men and women of Autocar are doing just that. In fact, their production is so good it earned the Army-Navy E for excellence. Rolling off the line in increasing numbers come trucks, half-tracks, 75 m.m. gun carriers, and other specialized vehicles for the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Air Forces.

Autocar joins you wholeheartedly in pouring out brute force to meet the brute force that started this war.

BUILDERS OF TOMORROW

TO THE young high school boys and girls of 1945, we extend our greetings and admonition:

Let us hope most of you may be spared any combat military service, although we know you would be willing, yes, glad to offer your all for your country and for the American way of life.

To you the world will look for leadership in the world of tomorrow. Yours will be the responsibility to put into operation, perfect, or change if necessary, the peace plans your fathers we hope will wisely make for you in a few years ahead.

May you dedicate yourselves as you leave your high school to do your part, your best, yes, your all, to make this whole world, not only this country, a peaceful, God-fearing and brother-loving place for all peoples.
